

Dr. Laura Wehr

Research Assistant

l.wehr@vkde.fak12.uni-muenchen.de

Curriculum Vitae:

- 1999 Magister Artium in European Ethnology, History and History of Arts, Ludwig-Maximilians-University, Munich. Thesis: "Comrade women? The idea of women in the women's magazine "Die junge Dame/Kamerad Frau" (1939-1945)
- 2000-2002 Trainee, Württembergisches Landesmuseum Stuttgart
- 2003-2006 Research Assistant, NFP52-Project "Children and their handling of time in an intergenerational context", Seminar of Cultural Anthropology/European Ethnology, Basel University, Switzerland
- 01/2007-06/2007 Trainee, German Youth Institute, Munich
- 2008 PhD Degree, Basel University (Switzerland). Dissertation: "Being child, having time? The everyday time practices of children in the intergenerational context"
- 2007-2010 Research Assistant, BMBF-Project "Entrepreneuresse: Family background and habitus of female entrepreneurs in Germany", Institute of Sociology, Augsburg University
- 2009/2010 Teaching fellow, Institute of European Ethnology, LMU Munich
- 2011 Teaching fellow, Seminar of Cultural Anthropology/European Ethnology, Basel University, Switzerland
- since 10/2011: Mentee of Mentoring programme LMU excellent
- since 01/2012: Research Assistant and Project Leader ("Eigene Stelle") at DFG-Project "Divided country, divided families? The East-West-Migration in family remembrance of GDR emigrants and their relatives", Institute of European Ethnology, LMU Munich

Main Research Topics:

- Family research
- Childhood research
- Time studies
- Culture of memory
- Methodology

