

CV Prof. Dr. Irene Götz

Born in Freiburg in Breisgau, Germany

1982-1988 German and English Literature and European Ethnology studies at the universities of Freiburg and Munich

1988 M.A. Degree at the Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München, Munich (LMU)

1988-1994 research assistant at the Institute of European Ethnology (LMU)

1994 PhD Degree at the LMU

1994-1996 research project on “National Identity and the Perception of ‘Foreigners’ in Germany” (Deutsche Identität und das Zusammenleben mit Fremden) (LMU), funded by the “VW-Stiftung”

Several Lectureships for Intercultural Communication Studies in Munich (LMU) and Basel/Switzerland

1996-1998 Post Doc-position at the Institute of European Ethnology (LMU)

1998-2001 member of an interdisciplinary research group (Forschergruppe Gesellschaftsvergleich), funded by the “Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft” and located at Humboldt University, Berlin: “Comparing Societies”, research project: “Cultural variety and representation of national values: A comparison of Germany and Hungary”

2001/2002 Post-PhD scholarship, sponsored by the Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (Habilitationstipendium)

2003 Post doctoral Degree (Habilitation) in European Ethnology at the Humboldt University, Berlin

2005- 2007 Guest professorships, Department of European Ethnology, Humboldt University, Berlin, Department of History and Ethnology, University of Innsbruck

Since 1 March 2007 Professor at the Institute of European Ethnology, LMU

Main research topics:

Identity politics; ethnography of work and corporate cultures; family cultures